Motivation and Goals

I have strong passion for languages in particular, and learning in general. I believe each of us have a purpose in this world, so there's no point in wasting time, doing something you don't like, or something that won't change the world to a better place to live.

That's why I want to find a creative job, which would help me reach my potential, and thus let the company benefit from my work.

Personal

Great fan of martial arts, nunchaku, acrobatics.
Love cinema, music, play piano, harmonica.
Passionate about photography and filmmaking.
Active participant of TV shows.
